

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

IF YOU DON'T VOTE RIGHT.
Oh, the Denny politician
Tells you if you'll vote for him
He will give you a position
That will cause your head to swim;
But his promise, like a bubble,
Quickly vanishes from sight,
And you'll get yourself in trouble
If you
Don't
Vote
Right.

If you want to see your dressin'
Simmer down to rags and holes,
You can do so by transgressin'
Your good judgment at the polls;
For a panicle sure to hit you,
And your clothes will be a sight,
And the old Rag Man'll give you
If you
Don't
Vote
Right.

If you're gittin' tired of biscuit—
You and Betsy and the brats—
And you're all a-mind to risk it,
You can jine the Democrats;
But you'll soon be lookin' droopy,
And your eyes'll lose their light,
And your breath'll smell right soupy
If you
Don't
Vote
Right.

All the Dems have ever given
Was the empty dinner pail,
And the workman was driven
To the soup so thin and stale;
So just keep your noggin' level,
And be fearless in the fight,
For you'll find you've played the devil
If you
Don't
Vote
Right.

—Yellow Jacket.

REMARK—BREEZE.

Vanceburg Sun.

Allan V. Ruark and Miss Mary L. Breeze of Mason county eloped to this place Sunday afternoon and stopped at the home of his aunt, Mrs. G. P. Adams. They were surprised to find that they could not secure a license to marry on Sunday and wanted to have the Clerk sit up till midnight to issue the license so they could be married immediately after midnight for fear the bride's father would overtake them. Mrs. Adams finally persuaded them that there was no danger and they waited till Monday morning at five o'clock when they were married by Squire Darragh.

HAMILTON—BERRY.

At Indianapolis, Ind., last evening occurred the marriage of two of Maysville's best known young people, Mr. H. L. Hamilton and Miss Edith Berry meeting at that place and plighting their troth.

Although their mutual attachment had long been an open secret, their marriage will nevertheless be a surprise to their many friends here, as no announcement of their engagement had been made.

Miss Berry has been on a visit to relatives in Chicago for several weeks, coming to Indianapolis last afternoon, where the marriage was arranged to occur.

Mr. Hamilton left Maysville Wednesday afternoon, and is expected to return with his bride tomorrow evening or on Sunday.

Miss Berry is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Berry of the Sixth Ward, and is one of this city's most attractive young ladies.

She is gifted with a splendid voice and has charmed Maysville audiences on many occasions with her sweet singing.

Mr. Hamilton, who is the son of Mrs. Rebecca Hamilton of West Front street, is one of Maysville's best known young men, deserving the happy lot which will be his in the companionship of his lovely bride.

PUBLIC MATTER

The East End Sewer Not Built For Private Benefit

The contemplated sewer in the East End is a public one and is being constructed for the specific purpose of draining and carrying off the surface water of that part of the city.

There is an impression abroad that private individuals can tap it at will, free of charge for their own special convenience.

Such is not the case, however. After the sewer has been completed, that part of the city will be laid off into sewer districts, and parties wishing the benefit of draining and carrying off waste water about their business establishments and private residences will have to make application to the Mayor and pay a reasonable sum for the privilege.

All these matters will be arranged by Council later on; but do not get it fixed in your head that the sewer is being built for the special benefit of anyone.

It is not.

It is a public affair altogether, and not a private one.

Invitations has been issued to the marriage of Miss Lena Pickett Prather of Fleming county to Mr. Charles Edgar Martin of this city, the wedding to take place on Thursday, September 15th, at 12 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. Will Move.

I will in a few days move into the store recently purchased from Mr. Harry Taylor, No. 39 West Second, directly opposite the State National Bank, where I will be pleased to see all who wish the latest and best in Millinery.
Mrs. L. V. DAVIS.

There were 5,811 paid admissions to the Germantown Fair last Saturday.

The refusal of the Postmaster General to name a Postoffice Vardaman, in honor of the Governor of Mississippi, may throw the electoral vote of that state to Judge PARKER.

THE worker in a Massachusetts factory gets 27% of what he produces, while the laborer in South Carolina gets only 19%; yet the Massachusetts laborer produces in one year $715 more for his employer than the laborer in South Carolina.

TEDDY had best look out, or the Ohio Populists will get him. They held their State Convention in a single bedroom at a Columbus Hotel and nominated a full state ticket—being obliged to go outside the crowd for enough men to fill the places.

It doesn't pay to notice a low-flying black-guard, even though he be, unfortunately, a high state official. Postmaster General PAYNE has given undue prominence to Governor VARDAMAN of Mississippi. The way to crush a blackguard is to pay no attention to what he says or does.

Political Pickings

KENTUCKY DEMOCRACY'S FLIGHT.

Paducah Register, Democratic.

The Democratic State Committee places its seal of approval upon the so-called Convention held recently in the Fifth Appellate District. That Convention was even more riotous and disorderly than the infamous Music Hall Convention, and it is supposed to have nominated a candidate to sit upon the Bench in the highest Court in Kentucky, a Court before which many of the cases of the state are finally settled.

What inducement is there to foreign capital to seek investment in Kentucky when the dominant party has descended so low in the scale of politics as to name men for the highest judicial office, in a Convention, the conduct of which brings a blush of shame to every good citizen?

The Louisville Courier-Journal and The Lexington Herald have both denounced the late Convention as a shame and disgrace to Kentucky, and have virtually said that no self-respecting man can afford to accept a nomination made in the manner adopted by one faction in the Convention. It is openly charged—and not denied—that the man who constituted himself Chairman of the Convention had been promised a place of profit by the candidate who was named as the nominee by a majority of the delegates.

Certain it is that the men now at the head of party affairs in this state think and believe that the Democrats will endorse and approve anything done in the name of Democracy, no matter how great the outrage, but we have too much faith in the integrity of the masses to believe that they will bear much longer with conditions in this state. For several years we have protested against the corrupt methods that are taking a firmer hold on the party each year, and pointed out the dangers ahead for any party that persists in such a course. We have no interest in political matters further than to see the Democratic party prosper by honest methods. It cannot command the confidence and support of good citizens if it resorts to theft and corruption.

The only salvation for the Democratic party in Kentucky rests in the Democratic press of the state. The leaders do not hesitate to engage in all manner of outrages, but if the press will call a halt and appeal to the people to stand for honesty and for honest methods the corrupt gang now in power will be swept into oblivion and Kentucky regain a place of respectability in the eyes of the Nation.

MR. JUSTICE FINNEMORE

Judge of the Natal Supreme Court, Sends the Following Remarkable Testimonial

TO CUTICURA

'The World Is Cuticura's Field. Used Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

"I desire to give my voluntary testimony to the beneficial effects of your Cuticura Remedies. I have suffered for some time from an excess of uric acid in the blood; and since the middle of last year, from a severe attack of Eczema, chiefly on the scalp, face, ears and neck and on one limb. I was for several months under professional treatments, but the remedies prescribed were of no avail, and I was gradually becoming worse, my face was dreadfully disfigured and I lost nearly all my hair. At last, my wife prevailed upon me to try the Cuticura Remedies and I gave them a thorough trial with the most satisfactory results. The disease soon began to disappear and my hair commenced to grow again. A fresh growth of hair is covering my head, and my limb (although not yet quite cured) is gradually improving. My wife thinks so highly of your remedies that she has been purchasing them in order to make presents to other persons suffering from similar complaints, and, as President of the Bible Women's Society, has told the Bible women to report if any case should come under their notice when a poor person is so afflicted, so that your remedies may be resorted to."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered with stomach complaint for years. I got so bad that I could not carry my children but five months, then would have a miscarriage. The last time I became pregnant, my husband got me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the first bottle I was relieved of the sickness of stomach, and began to feel better in every way. I continued its use and was enabled to carry my baby to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and can work better than I ever could before. I am like a new woman."

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—
"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business, capital and talent will locate where there is enterprise and community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as honest, persistent patronage, and this power should be appreciated."
